A Business / Community Influenza Pandemic Tabletop Exercise

Current Situation # 14 – Thursday 9:53AM

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) Strategic National Stockpile (SNS) has received large quantities of the vaccine to combat the H7N3 influenza virus from vaccine manufacturers from throughout the United States.

County Health Departments begin the process of establishing Points of Dispensing (POD) sites throughout the region. These Points of Dispensing (POD) sites are where individuals can receive their vaccination for the H7N3 influenza virus.

Understanding The Threat

- ✿ Strategic National Stockpile is a large quantity of medicine and medical supplies to protect the American public when there is a public health emergency (terrorist attack, influenza outbreak, etc...) severe enough to cause local supplies to run out.
